A Touch of Class

Tri-County Regional Vocational Technical High School

Franklin, Massachusetts

Pride has been defined as "satisfaction in one's achievements or ownership" and suggests synonyms such as dignity and self-respect. Although we have had in the past and will have in the future many opportunities to be Proud, there are few occasions when that special feeling is stronger than it is on your day of High School Graduation. Some will enjoy other graduations as time goes by but that satisfaction of accomplishment that you feel now may never be greater because this is that special time when you enter into adulthood after having completed all necessary preparation.

The ownership of your diploma, visible evidence of your success, will contribute to that sense of self-satisfaction. But Pride and the excitement that is part of being Proud at this time is not an automatic happening. In fact it happens, to a greater or lesser extent, only in relationship to your own concept of self-worth.

The essence of the ultimate Pride is self-respect. To the extent that you have self-respect you are more likely to respect all with whom you relate to and you can be assured that they will respect you in return. So go for it, it is simple, it is easy, and yet it will undoubtedly be your most important asset - Pride.

On behalf of the faculty and the entire staff, congratulations and thank you for having been here with us at Tri-County.

Senior Yearbook Committee

Front - Back: Elaine Carpentier, Deanna Gagnon, Lisa Orkney,

The 1987 Touch of Class staff this year was headed by seniors: Lisa Orkney, Deanna Gagnon, and Elaine Carpentier. These ladies worked hard and dedicated quite a bit of their time to "the cause"!

However, once the seniors had left, it was time to recruit some underclassmen. Cami Cady and a few other helpful students really came through with work on the final deadlines. Also, Mrs. Deanna Martell and her many typing students are to be thanked for time time and efforts. Without them, the final deadlines would never have been met! Thanks again to all who really helped to make this yearbook, a real "Touch of Class"!
